

Safety Assessment in theory and practice

Seminar objective

Knowledge about the basics of the legislator, regulations of the employers' liability insurance association and technical regulations are to be acquired.

You want to be enabled to perform the annual accident prevention inspection required by the employers' liability insurance association.

Target Group

Persons, comparable § 2 BetrSichV, who are qualified due to their training, professional experience and recent professional activity.

Organizations that operate a larger fleet with pulling winches.

Benefits

You will learn about the basics of the legislator and the DGUV the employers' liability insurance association wood and metal.

After simple maintenance work, you can easily perform the subsequent accident prevention inspection of the vehicle with pulling winch yourself.

Content focuses and learning objectives

- Overview of laws: Work protection act, product safety act
- Overview of regulations: Operating safety act
- Overview of provisions: DGUV principles and provisions 1 and 54
- Overview of technical rules and standards: TRBS and DIN
- Setup and maintenance of pulling winch units
- Contents of the accident prevention inspection according to DGUV 54
- Differences of the inspections according to DGUV 54 and EN 14492
- Accident prevention inspection according to DGUV 54 at a pulling winch

Performances and contributions of the participant

For trainings performed at the customer's site:

- Vehicle ready for inspection and road licensing
- Vehicle with good access to the winch and rope
- Training room with projector and workshop environment with pit

Appointment

by agreement

time required ca. 16 hours

Venue

at Steinen (alternatively at customers premise)

Attendance

minimum 5 / maximum 8
participants